Over the past term lots has been going on besides the daily lessons:

- Swimming took place in the Seán Kelly Centre in Carrick On Suir and was enjoyed by all. The final lesson included an aqua assault course. Bhain chuide dhuine sult agus spraoi as!!!
- The school ran a "No Uniform/Fancy Dress" day in Scoil Phádraig and raised €427.59 for the Enable Ireland/ O'Neill's Centre.
- Scoil Phádraig have been featured on quite a few radio and television shows. Damien Tiernan was in the classroom recording for Morning Ireland and we were also featured on the Six One News and on Up for the Match prior to the All Ireland Finals. We had television cameras in school last week and some filming was done which will air on December 23rd in a feature about Henry Shefflin.

The Scoil Phádraig Boys Gaelic Football team were beaten in the Final of the Roinn A championship by Thomastown. The boys did the school and themselves very proud in the Final played on December 8th in St. John's Park. The boys had a few goal chances in the second half and with little bit more luck anything could have happened. We are all now looking forward to the hurling which will start in March. Maith sibh a bhuachaillí!!!!!!!
